

Youth Media Minds of America

Audio, Video, Multi-Media Modules and Life Skills Training

On T.R.A.C.T. (Teaching Revolutionary Audio Communications Technologies) – Provides a foundation for learning technical and creative aspects of the audio engineering:

- multi-track recording
- live and studio recordings
- decibel translations
- audio integrations with computer technology

Videography for the Mind – Provides an in-depth experience with various aspects of video production including:

- broadcasting
- video editing
- lighting
- shot selection
- special effects
- technical direction
- video editing

Presentation Vocation - Provides hands-on experience in creating interactive slide presentations with graphics, custom animations, special effects, and other multimedia using computer technology. This program includes:

- basic computer operating skills
- software training for audio video and editing
- audio and video integration to make presentations come alive.

Foundation for Life – Individualized and group instruction and workshops on life skills are integrated in each module and include:

- decision making and problem solving
- conflict resolution
- communications
- time management
- money management
- college preparation
- and job search resources and skills